PARKING RULES AND REGULATIONS

General Provisions

The Department of Public Safety is responsible for the enforcement of the Siena Heights University parking rules and regulations.

Siena Heights University may exclude or remove from the campus any vehicle that is: used as an instrument in a crime, mechanically unfit, a threat to the safety of the public, being operated by a person under the influence of intoxicants or drugs, suspected of being stolen or abandoned, has no authorized permit properly displayed, is persistently in violation of University parking and/or traffic regulations, or is deemed necessary by Siena Heights University Public Safety in order to maintain the law, order and operations on the campus.

For vehicles removed at the discretion of Siena Heights University Public Safety, the owner will be responsible for any charges associated with the removal and retrieval. The University is not liable for any damages that may occur while vehicles are towed or removed from campus.

Redemption of revoked parking privileges is subject to a review by the Director of Public Safety, or designee, prior to reissuance.

Nonpayment of parking violation fees will result in additional violations and fees assessed, up to loss of parking privileges and/or removal of vehicle.

Siena Heights University parking rules and regulations are subject to change without notification at the discretion of the University.

Parking Guidelines

Parking on the Siena Heights University Adrian campus is a privilege, not a right, and is available to persons driving, and parking on campus solely under the rules and regulation of the University Parking Policies.

Students, faculty and staff members are expected to be familiar with and abide by University parking and traffic regulations. It is also the responsibility of the campus member to inform their guests and visitors of the rules and regulations.

Students, faculty and staff members who park vehicles on the Adrian campus must properly display the appropriate approved parking permit.

Violators of the parking rules and regulations are subject to warnings, penalties and appropriate disciplinary and/or administrative action. Violations may be subject to fines, tows and related charges, wheel locks and/or loss of parking privileges.

Siena Heights University assumes no responsibility for the care and/or protection of any vehicle, or its contents at any time it is operated or parked on campus. The University does not have any liability for damage or theft that may occur while parked on University property.

The Department of Public Safety reserves the right to waive certain parking rules and regulations for specific events or emergencies on campus.

Parking is on a first come basis, the University does not guarantee parking availability.
