Chicago (musical)
Book by Fred Ebb and Bob Fosse
Lyrics by Fred Ebb
Music by John Kander
Directed by Mark DiPietro

In roaring twenties Chicago, Chorine Roxie Hart murders a faithless lover and convinces her hapless husband, Amos, to take the rap...until he finds out he has been duped and turns on Roxie. Convicted and sent to death row, Roxie, and another "Merry Murderess," Velma Kelly, vie for the spotlight and the headlines, ultimately joining forces in search of the "American Dream": fame, fortune, and acquittal. This sharp-edged satire features a dazzling score that sparked immortal staging by Bob Fosse.

November 5

Twelfth Night: Or, What You Will
By William Shakespeare
Directed by Mark DiPietro

If music be the food of love, play on...

Mistaken identities, separated family, swashbuckling sword fights, cross dressing and forsaken love all combine to present one of Shakespeare's most hilarious and touching plays. Twelfth Night tells the tale of Viola, shipwrecked on Illyria. To gain employment, she must dress as a man and soon she falls in love with Orsino, who is in love with Olivia, who in turn loves yet another. Shenanigans ensue!

March 30, 31 &
April 1
